New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Silk Dresses at $12.50.

Values up to $29.50.

EVERY woman who shared in the sale of Silk Dresses several weeks ago has reason to remember the excellent values. And now comes another lot, but at a very much lower price—for those who think they need "just another" to complete the summer wardrobe or vacation outfit. Savings average a third, a half, and more; and all sizes are in the lot.

Included are satin foulards, in pretty dotted effects; and rich taffetas, in plain colors and delightful changeable effects. Some are effectively trimmed with Persian bands and fancy buttons, and show the new draped tunic skirt; some have yokes and cuffs of net or lace, are artistically braided, and have plain kilted skirts; some have high neck and long sleeves; some have Dutch neck and short sleeves. The new Russian blouse, opening to one side in front, and the plain accordion-plaited models are also shown. A collection of very rich and attractive dresses offered at the Special price, $12.50 each.

Values up to $29.50.

Women's Undergarments at $1.00.

Value, $1.50.

OUR Muslin Underwear Department shows a better and more comprehensive stock this year than ever before. The materials are better, they are more correctly proportioned, the trimmings are daintier and more becomingly applied, and the general make-up is of the sort that will not go to pieces with a few washings.

The following items are very special values—are regular $1.50 qualities—made of sheer nainsooks, soft cambrics, and fine muslins, prettily trimmed in various ways, and all-around high-class garments.

Women's Nightgowns, of cambric, nainsook, and cross-barred muslin, with low, round, or square neck, and short flowing sleeves, in a variety of styles and designs; some trimmed with lace insertion, embroidery medallions, lace edging, beading, and ribbon; others with embroidery or lace insertion, lace edging, beading, and ribbon.

$1.00 each. Value, $1.50.

Women's Cambric Long Petticoats, some with deep tucked lawn ruffles trimmed with blind or eyelet embroidery; others with deep tucked lawn ruffles.

$1.00 each. Value, $1.50.

Third floor—Eleventh St.

Women's Nightgowns, of cambric, muslin, and nainsook, with high or V neck and long sleeves; some with tucked yokes, finished with embroidery or lace edging; others trimmed with embroidery, insertion, and edging.

$1.00 each. Value, $1.50.

Women's Nainsook Combination Suits (drawers and corset cover, or short skirt and corset cover); some trimmed with lace and embroidery insertion and lace edging; others simply trimmed with Valenciennes lace or embroidery edging, beading, and ribbon.

SELLING MORE ELECTRICITY.

Census Shows a Doubling of Power Output.

The magnitude of the central electric industry in the United States in the census year 1907, as compared with the census year 1902, and the growth during the intervening five-year period, is shown in the Census Bureau's special report just published.

In 1902, there were 251 railway companies that furnished electricity for light, power and other purposes. In 1907, the number had grown to 330. In 1902, the annual output of all electric stations and electric railways amounted to 4,788,655,512 kilowatts. The increase in 1907 as compared with 1902 was 122 per cent.

The number of commercial and municipal plants increased from 3,620 in 1902 to 4,714 in 1907. The industries of 1907 represented an outstanding capitalization of $6,209,748,733.

Miss Helen Taft at Princeton for Annual Exercises.

TO RETURN EARLY IN WEEK

President and Family Leave for Yale Commencement June 20 to See Robert Graduate—Vice President and Wife in Utica—Miss Kaaspar's Engagement Announced.

Miss Helen Taft went to Princeton yesterday morning to attend the festivities attending the graduation. She will return to the White House early in the week. The President and Mrs. Taft, with Miss Taft and Master Charles Taft, will go together to the commencement at Yale University, June 20, to see the oldest child of the President, Mr. Robert Alphonso Taft, graduate.

Then Vice-President and Mrs. Sherman left Washington yesterday, a few hours after the former's return from the West, for their home in Utica, where they will attend the marriage of their niece, Miss Hattie Sherman, to Mr. William Cooper, which will take place to-day in that city. The bride's matron of honor will be Mrs. Carlton Wood, formerly Miss Laura Sylvester, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Wood are residents of Utica.

Secretary, Mrs. Meyer, and the Misses Meyer left yesterday afternoon for their summer home at Hamilton, Mass. Mrs. Meyer and her daughter do not expect to return to the Capital again this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Josef Kaaspar announce the engagement of their daughter Frances to Dr. Huron Willis Lawson, a young surgeon of this city. The wedding will take place in September. Miss Kaaspar will sail to-day from Boston for Naples for a trip abroad. They will return here the first of September. Miss Kaaspar is one of the leading singers of the city, a pupil of Bouhy, and soprano soloist in the Metropolitan M. E. Church. Dr. Lawson is a graduate of the Chicago University and of the Agricultural College in Michigan, and was at one time assistant chemist of the State of Michigan. He is now a professor in the George Washington University, as well as a practicing surgeon.

Mrs. Aleshire, wife of Gen. Aleshire, went to West Point yesterday to join her daughter, Miss Marjorie Aleshire, who has been the guest there of Miss Larned, daughter of Col. Larned, for some time. Gen. Aleshire and his daughter will go there to-day, and join the other members of the family, to be present at the graduation of their son, J. P. Aleshire, next Wednesday. Later in the month the Misses Aleshire will go to Wyoming for the summer, to stay with Mrs. Aleshire's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Dana, at their ranch near Sheridan.

Senator Don Luis Felipe Carbo, Minister from Ecuador, has been transferred to Caracas. He is to be succeeded here by Rafael Maria Arizaaga. The Minister and Senator Carbo and their interesting family have been most popular here, and their departure from the Capital will be much regretted.

The counselor of the British Embassy, Alfred Mitchell Innes, has gone to Buffalo and Canada, and will sail June 23 for Europe, to spend the remainder of the summer months abroad.

Mrs. Chamberlain, wife of Senator Chamberlain, of Portland, Ore., will close her 121st residence about July 1, and, with her family, will go to Capon Springs for the summer months. They will be joined there by Senator Chamberlain, when Congress adjourns, for a few weeks, just before he returns to Oregon.

Mrs. Frank O. Briggs, wife of Senator Briggs, of Trenton, N. J., will remain in Washington until Congress adjourns.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arnold Hague have closed their town house and will spend the summer months.

Mrs. William Belden Noble will close her home in N Street in a few days and go to Fort Myer, where she will be the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Lieut. and Mrs. Sherman Miles.

Mrs. James Irwin Steel and her daughter, with Mrs. Robert H. Thomas, left for Pennsylvania yesterday when they will go to the Massachusetts coast for the summer months.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles A. Murphy, of Winona, Minn., who were married in Chicago June 7, and who have been visiting in Atlantic City, arrived here yesterday to be the guests of Mr. Murphy's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy, of the Gladstone. The bride was formerly Miss Elizabeth Ramond Nade, of Chicago. Mr. Murphy was formerly of Washington, and has many friends here.

"WHEN A MAN MARRIES."

The Washington Herald will shortly begin the serial publication of Mary Roberts Rinehart's popular novel, "When a Man Marries."

For months this novel has been the best selling book in America. It has pleased thousands upon thousands of readers. Mrs. Rinehart has gained the position of premier writer of mystery stories.

By adding humor to mystery in "When a Man Marries," she has made a unique place for herself in American literature.

In this story the element of humor runs over and becomes fairly side-splitting.

It was from "When a Man Marries" that the play, "Seven Days," was made, and it proved the biggest farce hit that has struck Broadway in twenty years.

Readers of The Washington Herald will find in Mrs. Rinehart's charming tale the most pleasing newspaper diversion they have ever had. It will be printed from day to day, beginning on June 15, and no lover of good fiction can afford to miss a chapter of it.

Indeed, once the first chapter is read, the reader will find it impossible to do without the succeeding chapters.

It holds the interest from start to finish.

Remember the date of the first installment—Wednesday, June 15.

Leave your order for the paper now if you are not already a regular subscriber; or tell your news dealer to save each issue for you.

SEE MIDDIES TO-DAY

Prince and Princess Fushimi to Go to Annapolis.

ARE GIVEN FAREWELL DINNER

His Imperial Highness and Party Conclude Festivities in Capital as Guests of Japanese Ambassador and Baroness Uchida—Entertained on Board the Mayflower.

Prince and Princess Fushimi, of Japan, who have been so lavishly entertained during their stay here, will leave to-day for Annapolis, where the royal visitors will be entertained by Supt. Bowyer. The prince, who is greatly interested in naval affairs, will inspect the Academy grounds and will witness the fourth-classmen's drills.

The party will leave here at 11 o'clock on a special car over the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Railway. The car will later carry the visitors to Baltimore.

The festivities for the prince and princess were concluded last night with a dinner at the Japanese Embassy. The Japanese Ambassador and Baroness Uchida had as their guests members of the royal suite and attaches of the embassy.

The visitors spent yesterday afternoon at the navy yard, where the prince inspected the gun factories. Later they were entertained by Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer aboard the Mayflower, after which a trip was taken to Mount Vernon.

The guests aboard the Mayflower at luncheon were:

Guests at Dinner.

The Japanese Ambassador and Baroness Uchida; the Secretary of War; members of the party traveling with the distinguished visitors, including Mme. Hashiguchi, lady in waiting to the princess; Lieut. Commander Kiyokama, aid-de-camp to the prince, and Mr. Tanaka, master of the household; the counselor of the embassy and Mme. Matsui; Commander Hiraga, naval attaché; Lieut. Col. Tanaka, military attaché; Mr. Hanishara, Mr. Takahashi, and Mr. Onoki, secretaries of the embassy; the Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Huntington Wilson, Capt. and Mrs. Templem N. Potts, the Misses Meyer, and Commander Andrews, naval aid to the secretary.

His imperial highness saw how the big guns for United States battle ships are made at the Washington Navy Yard yesterday noon. Interested in every detail of construction, the prince went through the entire gun factory, with officers to explain every process.

WOODMEN HOLD EXCURSION.

Athletics Are Abandoned and Dancing and Music Predominate.

Washington Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, held its annual excursion at Marshall Hall yesterday, and despite the bad weather, a large crowd attended and made the outing a big success.

The athletic events had to be abandoned, and the dancing and music predominated. Two prizes were offered for the best dancing. Mr. George Thompson and Miss E. Berger easily captured first honors.

Y. M. C. A. MINSTERS SCORE.

Everybody Has Good Time at Show Given by Boys.

Everybody had a good time at the show given last night by the boys' minstrels of the Y. M. C. A.

"Rings on My Fingers," sung by Mark De Grange was the first hit of the evening. Francis Crowe, who sang "Scandal," treated the audience with something classical in the way of Mendelssohn tunes, which he retouched with negro dialect. "Wild Cherry Rag," was sung by Paul Street and "Yiddle on Your Fiddle," by Percy Schwartz.

R. W. Edmonds was interlocutor and Francis Crowe, Mark De Grange, Percy Schwartz and Paul Street were end men. Dufour Brown gave a banjo selection, and Lector Griffin a monologue. "Moving Day in Jungletown," was sung by "Baby" Smith, and sleight of hand tricks were performed by William Marr.

REMINERS OF SCHOOL DAYS.

Force School Class of '10 Adopts Yell and Pin.

The graduating class of the Force School, in Massachusetts avenue, has provided itself with a class yell, composed by one of the members, and a class pin, designed by another member. A meeting was held yesterday at which Richard Smith Chew was elected class president.

The pin is of dark blue and orange, the school colors, with "F. S." and "10" in raised silver on a background of enamel. The yell goes thus:

Who are we? Who are we? We are the FO-RCE! We are the FO-RCE! Hah! Hah! Hah! Hah!

Rollins Post Holds Meeting.

Rollins Post, G. A. R., held its bi-monthly meeting at G. A. R. Hall last evening. Owing to rainy weather very few of the members appeared. The meeting adjourned shortly after 9 o'clock.

Pope Greets Kansas Bishop.

Rome, June 10.—The Pope to-day gave an audience to the Bishop of Wichita, Kans., who presented a group of Americans, headed by a white-robed girl bearing an American flag. The bishop read a Latin address of homage and devotion. The Pope thanked him and blessed the pilgrims and their families.
